

SPANISH (SPAN)

SPAN 101 Introductory Spanish I (3)

Is an audio-lingual presentation of elementary Spanish grammar and vocabulary.

Meets general education requirements: GE-Social Awareness

SPAN 102 Introductory Spanish II (3)

Prerequisite: SPAN 101 or FORL 101

Is a continuation of FORL 101.

Meets general education requirements: GE-Social Awareness

SPAN 201 Intermediate Spanish I (3)

Prerequisite: SPAN 102

Gives an intensive grammar review along with further development of the oral and written practices through the use of selected reading.

Meets general education requirements: GE-Social Awareness

SPAN 202 Intermediate Spanish II (3)

Prerequisite: SPAN 201

Provides a continuation of SPAN 201.

Meets general education requirements: GE-Social Awareness

SPAN 210 Spanish Conversation, Reading and Comprehension I (3)

Prerequisite: SPAN 202

Give practice in the use of everyday Spanish; dictation, composition on ordinary theses, translation from English, and drill in practical conversation. Conducted in Spanish.

Meets general education requirements: GE-Social Awareness

SPAN 211 Spanish Conversation, Reading and Comprehension II (3)

Prerequisite: SPAN 210

A continuation of SPAN 210, with emphasis on reading and writing along with audio-language skills. Conducted in Spanish.

Meets general education requirements: GE-Social Awareness

SPAN 240 Spanish Short Stories (3)

Prerequisite: SPAN 211

Is especially designed to introduce the student to literature through the reading of short stories of Spanish and Latin American writers. Conducted in Spanish.

Meets general education requirements: GE-Social Awareness

SPAN 294 Topics: Spanish Language (1-4)

Is a title given to a course which covers broad themes, practices and subject content not currently offered in the curriculum. This course is directed primarily at non-majors and may be used for general education where approved.

Meets general education requirements: GE-Social Awareness

May be repeated for up to 4 hours

SPAN 301 Spanish Civilization and Culture (3)

Prerequisite: SPAN 211 or SPAN 240

Is a study of the history, topography, art, literature, music, and social aspects of Spain. Conducted in Spanish.

Meets general education requirements: GE-Social Awareness

SPAN 302 Latin American Cultures (3)

Prerequisite: SPAN 211

Is a study of the history, topography, art, philosophy, literature, music, and sociological aspects of Mexico and Latin America.

Meets general education requirements: GE-Social Awareness

SPAN 340 Introduction to Spanish Language Literature (3)

Prerequisite: SPAN 210

Introduces the student to some of the major Hispanic writers from both Spain and Latin America through a diverse array of reading selections representing the four genres of prose, poetry, drama and the essay. Conducted in Spanish.

Meets general education requirements: GE-Social Awareness

SPAN 494 Topics in Spanish (1-6)

Offers advanced study in special topics in the study of Spanish language and/or culture. Classes conducted in Spanish. Prerequisite: Placement in the class, three semesters of college level language study or equivalent.

Meets general education requirements: GE-Social Awareness

May be repeated for up to 8 hours